INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM “SCIENCE, ETHICS AND HUMANISM IN THE STRUGGLE FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE, SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE”

As part of the scientific program of the V International Conference FOR THE WORLD BALANCE, to be held in Havana, from January 24 to 28, 2023, organized by the José Martí Project for World Solidarity, delegates to this event will also be able to participate in the Symposium "Science, ethics and humanism in the struggle for social justice, sustainable development and peace" sponsored by the Cuban Academy of Sciences.

We extend an invitation to participate to scientists from all branches of knowledge, professors, teachers, social activists and people of good will who contribute to the development of knowledge about nature and society, to plural and multidisciplinary thinking, and to raise awareness about the important role of science, technology and innovation in solving pressing problems facing humanity today.

Topics that can be analyzed from various disciplinary perspectives and from national or local experiences can be addressed at the symposium. Among them are the following:

- Interrelation of science, ethics and humanism: the challenges of the present.
- Science, Technology and Innovation in the dialogue of civilizations. Science for peace at the center of solidarity between peoples and nations.
- Scientific diplomacy in favor of respect for international agreements and peaceful coexistence.
- Role of the Academies of Sciences in the making of life, international solidarity and the integration of peoples. Contributions of scientific thought to the historical memory of countries.
- Science, Technology and Innovation in public policies.
- The current era and the convergence of multiple crises: The concept of health to preserve life.
- The destruction of nature and current environmental problems: the lack and enjoyment of natural resources.
- The science of sustainability and its role today.
- Experiences of confronting the COVID-19 Pandemic. The Post-COVID era: challenges and role of science academies.
- Food and nutrition security, sustainable development and social justice.

- Advances in information and communication technologies (ICT). Your ethical use of social media.
- Science and Education in the context of human rights in the 21st century.
- Science in the fight against all forms of discrimination and social inequality.

Participation in the Symposium includes the modalities of speaker and participant. In either of the two statuses, the person will also be considered a DELEGATE to the V Conference and will have the right to be present in all the commissions, master conferences and other scientific spaces of the program of that conclave, as well as in the planned parallel activities. At the same time, you will receive a diploma from the Organizing Committee of the V Conference with the corresponding academic credits, according to international standards.

Registration of participants and speakers

The inscriptions of those interested in taking part in one or another modality can be made directly to the Organizing Committee of the Symposium or to the Organizing Committee of the V International Conference FOR THE WORLD BALANCE, whose call is attached.

The official languages of the event are: Spanish, English and Portuguese. There will be simultaneous translation in plenary.

Instructions for submitting papers

Those interested in participating in the symposium and/or presenting a paper can send their proposals to the emails olgafe@gmail.com and lilliamalvarezdiaz@gmail.com with a copy to hpardo2006@yahoo.es and hpardo@cubarte.cult.cu

Those who present papers at the Symposium "Science, ethics and humanism in the fight for social justice, sustainable development and peace" must send their papers to the Organizing Committee until November 30, 2022, through the same emails.

Submission of paper proposals must meet the following requirements:

- Work title.
- Summary of up to 100 words in Arial 12.
- Name(s) and surname(s) of the author(s).
- Scientific degree(s).
- Institution(s) to which you belong. City Country.
- Email address.
- Specify if means are required for its presentation.

The works must be sent before November 30, 2022.

At the end of the forum, the Proceedings of the V International Conference FOR THE WORLD BALANCE will be published, a compilation that will be distributed to academic institutions in various countries and will be published on the blog of the V Conference and on the website of the Academy of Sciences of Cuba.

For this, the speakers must deliver to the coordinating committee of the Symposium, at the time of accreditation in Havana, the full text of their presentations—including annexes—in a printed copy on 8.5 x 11 paper, accompanied by a digital copy in format of Word, in ARIAL 12. It is also expected that the Cuban Academy of Sciences will publish a book of the Memoires of the symposium in digital format with the papers presented.

ACCREDITATION

The speakers and participants will be accredited as delegates to the V International Conference FOR THE WORLD BALANCE, for which it is reiterated that they will have access to the entire program of this event and will have all the rights that emanate from their accreditation to it.

The Accreditation Fees, as established in the Call for this plural and multidisciplinary world forum, will be USD 120.00 for delegates and USD 50.00 for accompanying persons, or its equivalent in national currency. Undergraduate students will pay 70.00 USD.
