CONFERENCE ON THE NEW INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC ORDER
Organized by the Progressive International
Havana, January 25, 2023

In 1974, the UN General Assembly approved the declaration for the establishment of a New International Economic Order (NIEO). What is the legacy of that endeavor? How to renew its vision for the 21st century?

Today the world is experiencing profound geopolitical transformations. However, the structural inequalities of the international economy continue to be one of the main drags on the development of many countries.

For six decades, Cuba has been the protagonist of efforts in favor of a world based on equity and justice. From the launch of the Organization of Solidarity of the Peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America, in 1966, to the advance of medical internationalism during the Covid-19 pandemic, in 2020-21, Cuba has led the fight to build an international order "with all and for the good of all". In the same spirit, in January 2023 Cuba assumes the presidency of the Group of 77 + China.

To celebrate the occasion, the Progressive International organizes, within the V International Conference FOR THE WORLD BALANCE, the Congress on the New International Economic Order, to which representatives from all over the world have been summoned, to contribute to the renewal of the visions and actions in favor of the NIEO, in the proximity of the 50th anniversary of the UN Declaration that instituted it.
